Harvest Demonstration Held July 2

A forage harvesting demonstration was held last Wednesday on the P. L. Dunean farm in Cumberland County.

This hay-cutting equipment is designed for cattlemen who harvest in excess of 100 tons of hay per year. Because of the stack design, it lends itself to feeding on the farm rather than for "hay for sale".

The three basic machines pictured here are manufactured by several companies.

The machine in picture #1 makes a round roll of hay containing 1,000 to 2,000 pounds of hay.

Picture #2 shows a machine that picks up hay and places it in a stack.

Picture #3 shows a piece of equipment making a round stack holding 6,000 pounds of hay.

The Appomattox Tigers - Babe Ruth League Winners

The Appomattox Tigers baseball team only lost two games out of a fourteen game season to win the Piedmont Babe Ruth League title. The League consists of teams from Appomattox, Brookneal, Rustburg and Altavista. Congratulations to this fine baseball team and to the coaches who worked with them.

Not available for the picture were S. L. Ferguson, III, Greg Cheatham, and Dennis Moseley.

Civil War "buffs" are specialists. Often it is more than a hobby. I marveled at their equipment. Civil War muskets in top firing condition. Authentic uniforms. Correct uniform buttons. And excellent reproduction uniform buckles. The shoes were probably better than Lee's men had back in 1865, but these fellows are living proof that modern America has not forgotten its past with its glorious Heritage. There are hobbies and there are hobbies, but when you trudge from Petersburg to Appomattox, even if you do not get shot at all along the way, and even if you have rations to eat and are well shod, you are Living With History and have a memory that will not fade away.

Somehow, I am proud that I barged in and got to welcome these visitors. Sort of Made my Fourth of July, and extra proud to be an American, where people CARE.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH

The WMU is pleased to announce that their suggestion to paint and carpet the church SS rooms and social hall have been carried out. A couple Saturday mornings and week nights of work in the basement made a remarkable and pleasing difference.

It is reported that VBS was a big success at Antoch. A good time was reported by pupils and teacher. Commencement exercises were held Sun., June 22, and were very rewarding for students, teachers and parents.

We are glad to report that our pastor, Dr. H. O. Tench, is improving after surgery.

Also the church is receiving a new coat of paint on the outside.

We are looking forward to the young Believers being at Antioch July 6 at 7:30 p.m. to sing and play for us.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wiseman are the proud parents of a 5 lb. 4 oz. girl, named Windy Carol.

In Memorium

In memory of our beloved sister, Mrs. Mozell J. Price, who died July 11, 1971.

We cannot see your face.
When we think of you,
It is your hands which we see.
Your hands
Writing,
Holding a book,
Resting for a moment on the sill of a window.
Our eyes keep always the sight of your hands,
But our hearts hold the sound of your voice,
And the soft brightness which is your soul.
